Preface.

THE present Volume purports to give the substance of all entries in the Kensington Parish Register from the commencement, in 1539, to March 24, 1675-6. These entries are contained in three books:

(1.) A vellum-bound volume of 67 pages,  $10\frac{7}{8} \times 6\frac{3}{4}$  inches, the first entry dated March 16, 1538-9, the last March 22, 1632-3.

(2.) A vellum-bound volume of 34 pages,  $12\frac{1}{8} \times 7\frac{5}{8}$  inches, the first entry dated February 9, 1632-3, the last October 2, 1653. It consisted at one time of 40 pages, as appears by the old numbering, of which page 15 and pages 20 to 24 have been removed; the entries, however, seem to be complete. Pages 14 and 25, and three at the end of the book, are blank.

(3.) A fine calf-bound volume of 94 pages, nearly  $16\frac{1}{2} \times 12\frac{1}{4}$  inches, the first entry dated October 4, 1653, the last January 3, 1701-2.

In transcribing the entries the following departures have been made from the original:

(1.) Superfluous words are omitted.

(2.) Contractions are represented by apostrophes, and by the terminal "es" in italics.

(3.) Dates are reduced to the margin.

(4.) The three classes of entries are printed consecutively.

With regard to the first of these departures, it is strictly limited to such formal repetitions as "were married," "was baptized," etc.; and to repetitions of the surname in one entry.

With regard to the consecutive arrangement, by which for instance the baptisms, scattered over three books, are brought together, the Editors would for many reasons have preferred to retain the order of the original; in rearranging the entries they have conformed to the plan adopted in previous volumes of the Series.

The only serious difficulty in making the transcript has been the assignment of each entry to its true date, and in this connection one feature of the Register is very important. There is very little doubt in the minds of the Editors that the portion of the Register from the commencement to 1599, actually to the baptism of William son of Edward Bushe, on April 22, 1599, to the marriage of Thomas Chaundler and Elizabeth Filpote on February 11, 1598-9, and to the burial of John son of Francis Raunce on April 16, 1599, is itself a transcript from an earlier MS. The entries for the whole of this period of sixty years are beautifully written in an uniform hand, and are for the most part carefully classed into years. They are here printed exactly as they stand. Thus, to take a chance instance, the reader has before him all the clue afforded by the Register itself to enable him to decide whether the baptism of Anne Pechey, on January 26, 1553, belongs more properly to the year 1552-3, or to the year 1553-4.

From 1599 onwards the entries are the original contemporaneous record; they have not been manipulated by a transcriber. Accordingly they fall naturally, with some slight occasional obscurity, into years commencing March 25, and in most cases are clearly marked off in the MS. in accordance with that computation. The only exception is the period of baptisms from 1633 to 1636, at the beginning of the second book. Here the scribe, by frequently appending the year, has endeavoured to remedy the confusion, but the actual dates of some of the entries remain doubtful. The burials for this period (1633—36) appear to be wholly missing.

Where an entry after 1599 is out of chronological order, attention has generally been called to it in the text; such entries are not very numerous, and in many instances are obvious interlineations.

The language of the original is uniformly English, except in a few cases, noted in the text, where an imperfect attempt at latinization of the whole or part of an entry has been made.

The Editors are responsible for the correctness of the transcript, the whole having been collated in type with the original.

In conclusion, the Editors have to return their sincere thanks to the Vicar of Kensington, the Rev. the Hon. E. C. GLYN, M.A., for permission to transcribe the Register, and for great facilities of access to the books.
